87TH CONGRESS 2D SESSION S. 2726

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

January 23, 1962

Mr. Willy introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To provide for the establishment of a Citizens' Council for the Spread of Freedom.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 FINDINGS AND PURPOSE
- 4 Section 1. The Congress finds and declares that the
- 5 ideological struggle between the free world and the Com-
- 6 munist powers is one of the most crucial fronts of the "cold
- 7 war". Political, economic, and military alinements can well
- 8 be shaped by its outcome. If the ideals of freedom, as
- 9 symbolized in this country, are to prevail in that struggle
- 10 for men's minds and hearts the vague, blurred, and often
- 11 distorted image of America which has been created by our

1	adversaries must be replaced with a picture of the American
2	and free way of life which is not only truthful but under-
3	standable to other peoples and translatable to their needs
4	and aspirations.
5	It is the purpose of this Act to provide, through a high-
6	level Council composed of outstanding persons from private
7	life who are leaders in the informational fields, and officials
8	from the legislative and executive branches of the Govern-
9	ment, for a reevaluation of the scope of the Communist
10	ideological challenge, and of the adequacy of existing pro-
11	grams, together with recommendations for improving
12	policies and procedures, to meet that challenge.
13	ESTABLISHMENT OF COUNCIL
14	Sec. 2. (a) There is hereby established a Council to be
15	known as the Citizens' Council for the Spread of Freedom
16	(hereinafter referred to as the "Council").
17	(b) The Council shall be composed as follows:
18	(1) Four members appointed by the President
19	from private life;
20	(2) Four members appointed by the President of 21	the Senate, two from the Senate (one from each political
22	party) and two from private life;
23	(3) Four members appointed by the Speaker of
24	the House of Representatives, two from the House of Representatives (one from each political party) and two

from private life;
(4) Three members to be designated by the President, one from each of the following agencies: the United States Information Agency, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the Agency for International Development; and
(5) Such other members as the President may designate, from time to time, as essential to the functions of the Council.
(c) In selecting members from private life, the President, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, respectively, shall make certain that at least half of these members represent radio, television, publishing, and/or other major forms of mass media or other information dissemination or evaluation fields.
(d) The Council shall elect a Chairman and a Vice Chairman from among the members.
(e) Any vacancy in the Council shall not affect its powers, but shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.
original appointment was made. (f) Eight members of the Council shall constitute a

1	DUTIES OF THE COUNCIL
2	SEC. 3. The Council shall reevaluate the scope of the
3	Communist ideological challenge, and the adequacy of exist
4	ing programs, policies, and procedures to meet the challenge
5	In carrying out its function, the Council shall—
6	(1) make recommendations for the presentation
7	abroad of a more realistic picture of the American way
8	of life in a manner which is understandable to other
9	peoples;
10	(2) consider and make recommendations with re-
11	spect to the more effective utilization of the technique
12	and methods developed by private enterprise specialists
13	in the mass media fields for the presentation abroad of
14	the American way of life;
15	(3) formulate a program to meet the immediate
16	and long-range needs occasioned by the Communist
17	ideological offensive;
18	(4) make recommendations for coordinating ap-
19	proved programs and policies at all levels of Govern-
20	ment; and
21	(5) make recommendations for concerted and co-
22	operative action among the nations of the free world
23	in meeting the Communist ideological offensive.

1.	COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS
2	SEC. 4. (a) Members of the Council from the legislative
3	and executive branches of the Government shall serve with-
4	out additional compensation, but they shall be reimbursed
5	for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred
6	by them in the performance of the duties of the Council.
7 ,	(b) Members of the Council from private life shall each
8	receive $50 per diem when engaged in the performance of
9,	the duties of the Council, plus reimbursement for travel, sub-
10	sistence, and other necessary expenses incurred by them in
